

Fiona Page

Seeing through new eyes

Book at 404-459-7313, McFarland Media or fiona@fionapage.com

Fiona Page has been a professional story teller since 1983. Former Young Audiences, Inc. artist comes out of retirement to share tales of wit and wisdom. Fiona taught fourth and eighth grade for 22 years before she became a storyteller and motivational speaker.

The following options are available

1. Presentations for teachers and parents
Ask about a day of storytelling and speaking to parents and teachers about choosing stories for ages pre-school through second grade.
2. Fall Frolics-: Fiona the Earth Queen tells two amazing stories
The Native American Story of how the earth changes colors. How The Earth Was Made (Creation story from the Hopi). You will laugh and learn!
3. Invite Snow Flake, the famed third Blind Mouse, to your classroom!
Fiona appears in costume as Snow Flake, who says it pays to be courteous, respectful, and to learn a second language.

Fourth , fifth and sixth grades

1. Ask about the Queen of the Okefenokee Swamp; Stories of survival in the wetlands of Georgia
2. How Do We Know: fourth Graders start to think about the history and how we know. Fiona tells Henry Hudson's ghost ship, The Half Moon, stories of the Dutch settlement of New York and other explorers.
3. Ask for Native American tales to teach by.

Fiona Page

Seeing through new eyes

For All Elementary Age Children

1. Book Fiona in February Fiona, Ms Senior Georgia of 2004, tells stories of Fine Famous Females, who have one thing in common. Can you guess what it is? Helen Keller, Martha Washington Latise, Louis Braille's mother and Fiona's own mother, the first female to walk on two artificial legs. Stories of great courage and accomplishment. (overcoming obstacles)
2. A Spoonful of Stories
Fiona as Mary Poppins carries a satchel full of Fiona's Favorite Folktales.
3. St. Patrick's Day wouldn't be complete without Hilda Hiccup.
Telling about The Wee Folk in the magic underground. Wearing the green, Hilda shares how St. Patrick drove the snakes out of Ireland and how Mr. Leprechaun helped Connor win the race (appreciating one's gifts and talents) .
4. Fiona the Funny Bunny Meets Bettina, the bold butterfly who can't make friends.
Transformation story about disabilities, bullies, and beauty on the inside!
Dare To Be You—the best YOU to Be.
5. May Day May Day! Cautionary tales and campsite Capers
Fiona closes the season as the Earth Queen sharing safety tips and tall tales of trickster characters. (native American, African, and Mid-eastern stories)